

2nd Annual Konos Field Day Friday, April 26th from 3-6 pm

Arrive 2:15 pm | Games 3-4 pm | Field Events 4-5 pm | Family picnic/free play 5-6 pm

What is it?

A fun day of outdoor competition between Konos core classes. Small all-ages teams will be competing against other teams to earn the most points for their class day! The games are minute-to-win-it, team exercises, and field games organized by an experienced, professional game company.

Where is it?

In the parking lot and field next to CCW.

Who can participate?

The Battle of the Classes is open to all Konos core students from Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursdays. The more students who attend from your day, the better chance your class will have to win. The family picnic and free play from 5-6 are open to all. Please plan to bring your own meal. Water and Gatorade will be provided.

FIRST PLACE PRIZE: A class ice cream party and space on the coveted BOTC plaque!

What do I wear?

Wear a T-shirt, shorts, and athletic shoes.
No tank tops, swim-wear, or spandex, please.

How does it work?

Parents, please drop off your core students* at CCW by 2:15 pm. Licensed students can drive themselves. Games end at 5 pm. Family picnic and free play is from 5-6 pm.

Parents of very young core students should opt to stay.*

Where do I drop off or park?

Drop off is at the south entrance (KK and KJ entrance) and then please exit behind CCW at Whitewater Middle School. Parking is available behind CCW (turn into Christopher Drive next to Whitewater Middle School and the CCW parking entrance is on the left, opposite the Whitewater athletic field).

Mark your calendar and support your class day in the 2nd Konos Academy BATTLE OF THE CLASSES!
